Information about Jerez	Our School is located in Jerez de la Frontera (215,000 inhabitants), which is the biggest city in the province of Cádiz. It is an hour drive from Seville and half an hour drive from Cádiz. It is also near the coast as it takes fifteen minutes to get to the closest beach. We count on an International Airport, train station, coaches to the main cities of the country and a 40-km bike lane, so Jerez is a well-connected city. Our city is internationally recognised by the wine production, horse breeding, flamenco music and motorcycling races, all of them contributing to a lively atmosphere throughout the year. Also, we hold some of the most well-known celebrations in Spain: Cadiz Carnival in February, Jerez Semana Santa in March-April and, of course, Jerez Horse Fair in May are internationally recognised. Our city is strategically located near the mountains of Grazalema

	(offering best places for hiking) and the most outstanding beaches of the southwest, and with one of the warmest winters in Spain, sun and good weather are more than guaranteed. Finally, according to our former Language Assistants, it is one of the cheapest regions to live in (rent, food and drinks, transport, gym ...) and to have fun. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kBlvr0x7AiM&ab_channel=HistoryofSpain https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HRTCeP5emYY&ab_channel=ReigneOrShine https://hijerez.com/ https://www.iesfernandosavater.es/english/about-us/history/
